TO THE PUBLIC.

THE BUFFALO CITY DIRECTORY for 1894 has been compiled with all possible care, and may with confidence be put before its patrons on its merits, the publishers believing that in all particulars it will compare favorably with any similar work ever produced. Nothing has been neglected that might aid to make it a complete guide and book of reference for the residents of Buffalo and all who come to the city. It will be recognized as keeping pace with the municipal growth, of which the book itself gives the strongest kind of evidence.

As the city grows, so necessarily does the bulk of each successive year's volume enlarge. The DIRECTORY for this year contains 1,142 pages of names, of which the grand aggregate is 105,064 as against 100,000 in the book of 1893. Using the most conservative basis of calculation, this total of names indicates a present population of 341,457, being an increase of over 16,000 in the year—conclusive evidence that the Queen City of the Lakes is by long strides advancing toward metropolitan magnitude.

Extreme care has been exercised to make the street directory as nearly perfect as possible. All extensions and alterations are noted, and 101 new streets have been added, making the total number of streets, avenues and alleys in the city 1,303.

All other departments will be found alike accurate and comprehensive, including a vast fund of useful information regarding the city and county government, churches, schools, public and private institutions, financial, fraternal and other associations, the whole forming a strictly reliable and invaluable epitome and catalogue of all Buffalo's important interests. The DIRECTORY is fully indexed, and with the benefit of long experience its arrangement is such as to make it an entirely convenient book of ready reference.

BUFFALO

STREET AND AVENUE DIRECTORY.

EXPLANATION.

It will be noticed that in this Street Directory the names of the streets are set down in alphabetical order, giving the course which they run, according, as near as possible, to the points of the compass, and enumerating all streets which cross the same in the order in which they occur. The streets in the city were renumbered in 1868, and the following method was adopted, to wit: From the starting-point of the street, measuring along the line of the street, twenty feet; then making No. 1 to the right-hand side, and No. 2 to the left-hand side, and so on, each twenty feet, whether there be a building or a vacancy or a street crossing. The number on one corner has been given, so that a person wishing to find, say, 499 Main Street, on consulting the Street Directory, finds that the right-hand corner of Main and Mohawk is No. 487, consequently the place he seeks is only a few doors above.

POSTAL RULES.

A subscriber cannot re-mail his paper to another without prepayment of postage at transient rates.

Postmasters cannot deliver from their respective offices letters addressed and deliverable from other offices, except in case of letters addressed to discontinued offices nearest the office where such letters are held for delivery.

Money should not be inclosed in an ordinary letter.

Valuable letters should be carried to the Postoffice and registered. If money is to be remitted, a Postal Order should be obtained. Money and other valuables sent by mail are at the owner's risk.

Head letters with the name of the writer's Postoffice and State, street and number. Sign them with full name and request that answers be directed accordingly.

It is the duty of the Postmaster at the mailing office, as well as at the office of delivery, to carefully examine all printed matter, to see that it is charged with the proper amount of postage, and to detect fraud.

When publishers inclose hand-bills with their newspapers in violation of the law, the Postmaster is required to rate up such packages with letter postage, according to the weight of the same, and, if not paid by the party addressed, to return them to the mailing office to prosecute the sender in the penalty of $5 in each case.

No extra postage charge is to be made for a card printed or impressed upon an envelope or wrapper. The Postoffice Department prints name and address of sender free upon stamped envelopes.

The law limits the weight of packages to be sent by mail to four pounds, except single book issued by Congress.

The person entitled to receive letters by mail are those whose names are in the address, and delivery should be to the person addressed, or according to his or her order.

Letters addressed to a party deceased can only be delivered to his legal representatives. Letters addressed to a firm may be delivered to any member thereof.

Drop letters can only be forwarded upon the prepayment of one full letter rate of postage.

THE FOLLOWING ARTICLES ARE UNMAILABLE.

Postmasters are notified that under this act such matter will be treated precisely as obscene matter is treated under the provisions of section 380, Postal Laws and Regulations. Any postal card, or any other matter upon the envelope or outside cover of which appears anything which reflects injuriously upon the person addressed, or any one else, or upon his character or conduct, or is plainly calculated and intended to injure his feelings or reputation, or bring him into discredit, or threatens him, will be excluded. Anything in the nature of an offensive or threatening dun apparent upon an envelope, outside cover or postal card, or conveying the suggestion that such dun is inclosed, will be excluded as non-mailable under this act. The attention of Postmasters is called, in this connection, to sections 381 and 527 of the Postal Laws and Regulations as applicable. (See April Guide, 1892.) As to mailability, the Postmaster, if he deems any case doubtful, will submit it to the department for decision.

BUFFALO LAW SCHOOL.

Lecture Room over 158 Pearl.

Organized June, 1887, under the auspices of the Judiciary and the Bar of the City of Buffalo. The faculty and lecturers upon special topics are either judges now upon the bench, or lawyers in active practice, who will bring to the discharge of their duties ripe experience, made more valuable by their constant engagement in the decision and trial of the many new questions of law which arise in the practice of their profession.

MERCHANT'S GARGLING OIL LINIMENT { Good for Man and Beast. Use Yellow Wrapper for Animal, and White Wrapper for Human Flesh. Try a Bottle.

It will be remembered that the Buffalo Law School was organized in the spring of 1887, as a department of Niagara University, by Hon. Charles Daniels, Hon. Charles Beckwith, and others of the most prominent members of the Buffalo bench and bar.

In the month of March, 1891, it severed its friendly relations with the University at Suspension Bridge. By a recent change in the organization of the School it has become allied to the University of Buffalo, as its Department of Law.

The advantages to the School are great; its power as an educational factor is recognized and approved by the leading educators of the State. Students taking their course of instruction in this department will receive the degree of Bachelor of Laws from the University of Buffalo.

Officers: Charles Daniels, Dean; E. Corning Townsend, Secretary and Treasurer.

The course of instruction to be followed will occupy two years' time. Each year will be divided into two terms of seventeen weeks each, beginning the first week in October and closing the last week in May.

The situation of the School at the City of Buffalo is a peculiarly favorable one. During most of the college year four Courts of General Jurisdiction are in session, in which the trial of important cases, often by distinguished counsel, are constantly in progress.

Special terms of the Supreme Court and of the Superior Court of Buffalo are held daily, at which judges sit to hear and determine questions touching almost every branch of the law. Terms of the United States Courts are also held in the United Staes Court rooms; two General terms of the Supreme Court and General terms of the Superior Court of Buffalo are held yearly.

Students will thus have the opportunity to observe the trial of causes before judges and juries, and to hear the argument of legal questions in appellate courts.

All communications should be addressed to E. Corning Townsend, Secretary and Treasurer, 43 White building.
